MRS. WILCK'S LOST SCALP.

Now the Skin of a Dog Has Been Grafted on Her Head. The surgeons at Bellevue Bospital are to-day watching with particular interest the ELEGANT she was yesterday subjected to the sixth skin-grafting operation for the substitution of her scalp, which was torn from her head by her hair being caught in machinery in her husband's laundry at Twenty-third atreet husband's laundry at Twenty-third street and First avenus in the latter part of December, 1800.

This last experiment consisted of gratting skin taken from a black and tan dog which had been carefully led for that purpose.

In the five preceding grattings strips of skin had been taken from the ody of a lady friend of the unfortunate woman, but all were unsuccessful.

Dr. Bern Gallaudet, of 62 West Thirty-fith street, assisted by Ur. Van Losm, performed yesterday's operation.

Mrs. Wick was resting quietly this morning.

WEATHER TO ORDER. Good Chances for a Pleasant Columbian Day. New York is having a pull with the syndicate that controls the weather and succeeded bo-day in getting the best in the market.

While Washington statesmen were shiver ing with the thermometer at 38, New Yorkers were layored with the mercury at 49 and enough sunlight to make things as pleasant as man could wish.

Forecaster Dunn said this morning that there might possibly be rain to-night, but he wouldn't advise any one to gamele on it.

To-morrow will be colder and tair, sunday the same, and conditions now point to a similar this of fare ou Monday.

Further than that Mr. Dunn would not prophesy, but be said there was good reason to hope that Columbian Day will be as lair as bunting dealers could wish for.

HELD HIM IN A BED OF FIRE.

Crasy Woman Fatally Injured Burn ing Her Husband to Death.

- INT ASSOCIATED PRESS. GREENCASTLE, Ind., Oct. 7. - The wife of Wm. Sharp, of Coatgaville, poured coal oil on his bed while he was sleeping yesterday and burned him to death. She opposed Sharp's efforts to escape with ail her might and was herself so severely burned that it is thought she will die. She had just returned from an asylum, where she was confined for two or three years. The couple were over fitty years of age.

Washington Ball Players Released.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—All the players of the Washington team under contract, except Richardson, Radiord and Killen, nave been served with a ten days' notice of release. By cutting off one pay day the Club will save about $2,500 in salaries.

Britannic Arrives at Quarantine. The steamship Britannic arrived at Quar antine this morning from Liverpool with 191 cabin passengers on board. Among the pas-sengers are Judge Horace Hare, or Philadel-phia; Countess Widell? of Norway; James Douglas and F. De Coppet.
